CARITHERS, Theodore James

Theodore James Carithers is a very special person - not only in the eyes of his parents, Mr. & Mrs. James Carithers, 416 West Third street - but also in the eyes of this community.

Born at 11:26 p.m. Sunday in Woodlawn hospital to Linda and James Carithers, he is the winner of the 23rd annual First Baby of the Year Derby.

As such, he earns 43 gifts for himself and his parents in the contest which is sponsored by The Rochester Sentinel and local merchants.

Theodore James checked in at a weight of 5 lb 2-1/2 oz. He succeeds Rebecca Ann Conwell, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Terry Conwell, RR 2 Rochester, as 1970 First Baby Derby winner.

The new parents have two other children, a daughter, Danielle Lynn, who will be six in March and a son Wayne Edward, who will be four Jan. 20.

The new baby boasts a special group of proud relatives. They are: The paternal grandfather, Mr. Theodore (Bubb) Carithers, of Fulton; the maternal grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Howard Summers, West Third street, Rochester; the paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Carithers, Fulton; maternal great-grandfather, Charles W. Zartman, of Rochester, Mrs. Marie Summers, East 10th street, Rochester.

The proud parents are lifelong residents of this area - Mr. Carithers is formerly of Fulton and Mrs. Carithers has always resided in Rochester. Mr. Carithers is an employee of the Ritz-Craft corporation in Argos.

DAMRON, Dewayne Keith

Dewayne Keith Damron didn't really hurry his arrival just so he could be the first baby born in Fulton county in 1972, but the fact remains he was born at Woodlawn hospital two months early.

His arrival at 12:42 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 1 made him winner of the 24th annual First Baby of the Year Derby, putting him and his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Dewey Damron, in line for 44 gifts in the contest sponsored by The Sentinel and local merchants.

Dewayne Keith, successor to Theodore James Carithers, son of Mr. & Mrs. James Carithers of near Fulton, is a seven-month baby, according to Mrs. L.M. Patch, supervisor of the obstetrics department at Woodlawn hospital. He weighed only four pounds, one-half ounce and measured 16 inches in length at birth.

The mother, the former Bertha Sue Hale of Blue River Ky., still hasn't been able to hold her two-day-old infant because it is being kept in an isolate to protect it from germs.

Dewayne Keith has three brothers and a sister, three grandparents and 18 aunts and uncles. The brothers are Sam Henry, 8, Junior, 5, and Bert Richard, 3. The sister is Audie Jewel, 17 months old.

Mr. & Mrs. Richard Hale of Blue River are the maternal grandparents while Bert Damron of Rochester is the paternal grandfather. The paternal grandmother of the Damron children died last year.

One of Dewayne Kehti's uncles is Frank Hale, 17, who lives with the Dewey Damrons here. Mrs. Damron has four other brothers and five sisters living in Kentucky.

The father has a brother and seven sisters, all of whom live in Rochester or nearby: Carl Damron, Lake Manitou; Mrs. Steve (Judy) Croussore, Rochester; Mrs. Ed (Lottie) Smoker, RR 1 Rochester; Mrs. Joe (Ellen) Morrow, Rochester; Mrs. Richard (Beatrice) Gilliland, Rochester; Mrs. Marty (Sue) Shuey, Rochester; Mrs. Harold (Ann) Lewis, Perrysburg, and Mrs. David (Dottie) Mayhew, Warsaw.
