

FIVE CORNERS CEMETERY

Located on the south side of 1250N. between 400W and 500W in Allen Township, Miami County, Indiana.

The rows run north and south, are numbered from west to east, and the markers are read from north to south.

NATHAN BRYANT and MATTHIAS HARMON are mentioned as being among the early burials in Five Corners Cemetery (Brant & Fuller, History of Miami County, 1887, p. 494), but no markers bearing their names were found by the compilers of this book.

The Five Corners Cemetery was established in 1856 and is one of the oldest in Miami County.

One source says there are ninety lots in the old section and ninety or more in the new section. Another says there are 79 in the old and 96 in the new.

The first two persons to be buried in the cemetery were MATHIAS HORNER and CHARLES WILLIAMS, a Civil War veteran.

The grave of an unidentified Indian has an iron marker in the shape of an Indian's head and a stone with a number on it. (Cook, Cemeteries of Miami County, Vol. 1

Readings were taken on June 22, 1975 and again on August 5, 1987.

PLAINVIEW CEMETERY

The I.O.O.F's bought a tract of land just west of Macy, containing three acres, and platted the same in 1890. This cemetery is enclosed with a beautiful iron fence, and is kept in first class shape by the above order. Mrs. SARAH CHAMP, wife of JOHN CHAMP, was the first person buried in the place. The cemetery contains two hundred and nine lots, most of which are already sold... (Stephens, History of Miami County Indiana, p. 296)

The cemetery is divided into four sections. The rows run north and south, are numbered from west to east, and the markers are read from north to south.

Readings were taken in 1975, and 1987.

CARVEY CEMETERY

MATHIAS CARVEY laid out the first burying ground in the township, (Allen). . . Among the earliest burials . . . were Mr. and Mrs. BAILEY, MATHIAS CARVEY, and a child of WILLIAM HAKINS. . . (Stephens, History of Miami County Indiana, p. 296)

This cemetery was located in the present north-east part of Macy, known as Piety Hill, and was owned by Mathias Carvey. RUTH (HURST) QUICK, owner when the compilers researched for this book in 1977, showed up where the cemetery was located, indicating that it was somewhere east or south-east of her house. Many years ago the cemetery was abandoned, plowed over, and is no longer visible.

MATTHIAS CARVEY was the great-great grandfather of WENDELL C. TOMBAUGH, co-compiler of this book. The following information was collected by JEAN C. TOMBAUGH, wife of Wendell C., and co-compiler of this book.

CARVEY, Matthias, b. 1803-11 in Vermont, the son of William & Elizabeth of Orange and Yates Counties, N.Y., and d. Jan 4, 1841 near the present town of Macy, Miami County, Ind. He was buried in the Carvey Cemetery.

(The Probate records for Miami County, Indiana were destroyed by fire on March 16, 1843. The only part of the Matthias Carvey Estate records saved is the Final Settlement, which was filed on Nov 10, 1847)

CHAPMAN, Susan, first wife of Matthias. (no dates available)

CARVEY, William S., son of Matthias and Susan Chapman Carvey, b. 1822.

CARVEY, Myron W. (no dates)

CARVEY, Annie (Bailey), second wife of Matthias, Dau of

Richard & Melinda (Parke) Bailey of Onondago County, N.Y, b. c. 1805, d. Apr 3, 1883. Her second marriage was to SAMUEL REINS on Apr 3, 1843. (Miami Co, Ind M.R.)

(He probably d. before 1850, as the 1850 Census of Miami County, Ind. shows ANNA RAINES, householder)

CARVEY, Avery P., son of Matthias and Annie Bailey Carvey, b. 1828 in N.Y.

CARVEY, Stephen B., son of Matthias and Annie Bailey Carvey, b. 1827 in N.Y.

CARVEY, Peter Matthias, Son of Matthias and Annie Bailey Carvey, b. 1832 in N.Y., d. 1907.

CARVEY, Anna Jeanette, Dau of Matthias and Annie Bailey Carvey, b. 1833 in N.Y., m. SMITH B. EWER in 1852

(This page was intentionall left blank so that the index would remain correct.)

WILKINSON CEMETERY

Located on the northwest corner of lot occupied by the present school, Macy, Allen Twp., Miami County, Indiana.

At one time the graves were marked by marble monuments and were surrounded by an iron fence. Vandals have destroyed both. The branches of an oak tree overhung the plot. Mrs. OLLIE LEONARD stated that a member of the NEECE family is buried nearby.

WILKINSON, John, b. c. 1768, d. Dec 24, 1838

WILKINSON, Delilah, b. 1775, d. Sep 19, 1870

(compiled by Mrs. HORACE COOK. not dated)

WILKINSON, John, b. 1768?, d. Dec 24, 1838

WILKINSON, Delilah (Onstott), his wife, 1776-1870

NEECE, (----) (no further given)

(contributed by Miss VESPER WILKINSON, Peru, Ind., great, great, great granddau of John Wilkinson)

TOMBAUGH CEMETERY

Located in Perry Twp., Miami County, on 1200N, between 450E and 500E., on the north side of the road, immediately east of the old Enterprise Church, now owned by the Olive Branch Church of God.

Although it never has been associated with the church in any way, the cemetery sometimes has been referred to as the Enterprise Cemetery.

The land for the cemetery was donated by GEORGE TOMBAUGH, who came from Washington County, Pennsylvania. He purchased the land on March 13, 1841 from ANDREW and AGNYS ONSTOTT, who had purchased the same from the United States of America and obtained Patent dated March 30, 1837. (Information obtained from the abstract) GEORGE TOMBAUGH was the great-grandfather of WENDELL C. TOMBAUGH, co-compiler of this work.

The rows run north and south, are numbered from east to west, and the markers are read from north to south.

All readings were taken in 1975 and 1987.

The stone of MARGARET BOWERS lies in the grass in curve of drive. J. BOWERS was a pioneer.

Many of the early graves are no longer marked and I did not attempt to record any later graves.

NICONZA CEMETERY
(Old Niconza - South Niconza)

Located on the west side of 700E between 1200N and 1300N, in Perry Township, Miami County, Indiana, adjoining the present Ross Yocum farm.

The first death in Perry Township was that of JAMES BUNTON, in August, 1835, and he was buried in the Niconza Cemetery. (Brant & Fuller, History of Miami County, 1887, p. 718) However, his grave was not found by the compilers of this book.

This cemetery is. . . on the RALPH SAUSAMAN farm. Is nearly one mile south of what was once the center of Niconza Village started in 1836. Now only three or four houses. Is no longer used as a burial place but is in fair condition. (Cook, Cemeteries of Miami County, Indiana Vol. 1)

The rows run north and south, are numbered from east to west, and the markers are read from north to south.

Readings were taken in 1975 and 1987.

NICONZA BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY

Located west of the Niconza Baptist Church, on the west side of 700E between 1300N and 1400N, in Perry Township, Miami County, Indiana.

The first church building of the Niconza Baptist Church was constructed in 1858 (Brant & Fuller, History of Miami County, 1887, p. 722). DAVID TURNER, the pastor in 1975, reports that the church was founded in 1842 and that "the whole area" around the church was called the Niconza neighborhood.

The rows run north and south, are numbered from east to west, and all markers are read from north to south.

Readings were taken in 1975 and 1987.

TILDEN CEMETERY

Located on the west side of 50E between 1100N and 1200N, in Perry Township, Miami County, Indiana, in a woods, owned in 1976 by VERLE and SANDY SLOAN.

The cemetery is in terrible condition, being badly overgrown with bushes and trees. Only one or two markers were not on the ground. The rows could not be identified with certainty, but ran north and south. The readings were taken from west to east, and the markers were read from north to south. Because of the extremely poor conditions, the rows were not numbered.

Readings were taken in 1976.

SHELL CHURCH CEMETERY

Located on the East side of 450E directly across from 1150N in Perry Township, Miami County, Indiana. It is about half way between the Tombaugh Cemetery and the Shoemaker Cemetery.

The cemetery has been abandoned for many years, and in 1977 Jean C. and Wendell C. Tombaugh found no evidence of it.

JESSE L. TOMBAUGH, father of Wendell C. Tombaugh, co-compiler of this book, who was born in 1886 and who was raised nearby on the HEZEKIAH TOMBAUGH farm, recalls in 1977 that there was a church and a cemetery at this location when he was a young man. Although he was not a member, he attended the church a few times and was acquainted with its membership, but can now recall only the name of one boy who attended, namely WALDO ACHEY.

The cemetery had 50 to 100 markers "at least," and was located on "close to an acre" on the east and south sides of the church.

The church was of the Winebrenarian denomination, and perhaps as late as the 1920's the congregation merged with the Brethren denomination and purchased the Enterprise Church, which had been abandoned and land and building had reverted to the donor, Hezekiah Tombaugh, father of Jesse L. Tombaugh.

It is possible that some bodies have been reburied, perhaps in the Tombaugh Cemetery, adjoining and to the east of Enterprise Church.

HAZEL RHODES, of Roann, Indiana, was unable to ascertain the name of the cemetery in 1955. She wrote: "About 1916 - the last of remember [sic] there was a small cemetery containing some eight to a dozen stones ... on what is now the DONALD MUSSELMAN farm.

"Strangely I can find no one among the older people of the community who really know anything about it, some saying that ... it was perhaps one quarter acre in extent others saying it was quite small ... others not remembering it at all.

"I visited it in the fall of 1954. There were no stones standing and in a rock pile on the site of the plot ... were:"

SHOEMAKER CEMETERY

Located in the southeast corner of the intersection of 1100N and 450E in Perry Township, Miami County, Indiana.

The rows run north and south, are numbered from west to east, and the markers are read from north to south.

The cemetery is very uneven, indicating the possibility of several graves having been removed and perhaps others for which there are no markers.

Readings were taken in 1976.

PLEASANT HILL CEMETERY

Located on the west side of 100E approximately 2/10 mile north of 1500N in Perry Township, Miami County, Indiana. It is in a woods owned presently by ALBERT YOUNG, Rural Route 1, Akron, Indiana

There was evidence of about 13 graves in the one-acre cemetery in 1929, but tradition points to no less than 50 burials.

The cemetery is owned by the Pleasant Hill Methodist Church, which originally was located a short distance west of the cemetery. The church was razed around 1870, and a new one was built approximately one mile west and a little north of the cemetery. There have been few, if any, burials in the cemetery since 1870.

On October 10, 1976 Jean C. and Wendell C. Tombaugh found only one marker standing. A thick ivy ground covering completely obliterated any evidence of any other markers. The ground was uneven, indicating the possibility of more graves or perhaps the removal of several bodies to other cemeteries.

The compilers are indebted to LEORA BOWEN, Mrs. HORACE COOK, MICHAEL "MIKE" HUDDLESTON and especially to Mr. CHARLES A. WAGNER, Library Director, Peru Public Library, for the above history and the following reading and research notes.
