SAND HILL CEMETERY

This is also known as the Ralstin Cemetery. Mrs. Shirley Willard, Fulton County Historical Society, informs us that the cemetery is also known as the Polk Hill Cemetery, being located on the old William Polk farm and is about five miles north of Rochester, one-half mile east of old US-31, on 450N, at 100E.

The rows run north and south; are numbered from east to west; and stones are read from south to north.

Readings made in 1974 and 1991.

RICHLAND CENTER I.O.O.F. CEMETERY

Two large burying grounds are in the town of Richland Center, Richland Twp., Fulton County, Indiana. One is on the East side, and the other, almost directly opposite, is on the west side of the road.

The I.O.O.F. Cemetery, located on the East side, is beside the Richland Center township school that was in the process of being razed in 1974.

This cemetery is divided into four sections by driveways. The rows run north and south; rows are numbered from west to east; stones are read from north to south.

Readings made in 1974 and 1991.

RICHLAND CENTER CITIZENS CEMETERY

This burying ground is located in Richland Center on the west side of the road, next to the church.

We have divided it into the North and South Sections. Rows run north and south; rows are numbered from east to west; stones read from north to south.

Readings made in 1974 and 1991.

[NOTE: This marker was broken into three parts, and was difficult to read. However, there is info available from other sources.

Ann Mariah, wife of Dean B. Walker, was born in Penn ca.1802, and six or seven children were born in Penn, and at least one born in Ind. They were all included in the 1850 Census. Her husband died in 1851, and on September 29, 1851, Ann Mariah Walker and Moses Smith were named Admrs. of the estate of Dean B. Walker.

Anna M. Walker, widow age 63, was found living with Harrison (ae 22), her son, in Richland Twp, in 1860; she was "living with son" (Harrison and Amanda Walker household) in 1870, but was not there in 1880. The year of her death was about 1875.

WALKER, John M., d. May 26, 1850, ae 26d

WALKER, Sophia, wife of James ---- (under ground)

[NOTE: Census records indicate that Sophia was b.ca.1825 in Penn, and had, perhaps, five children by 1860 (year of birth of youngest child of James Walker). The family was not in Richland Twp in 1860, but James Walker and his children were back in this county & twp by 1870. Sophia was not with the family at that time.]

JOHNSON FAMILY CEMETERY

Located on the old Sherman Overmyer farm, owned in 1974 by Ninian and Esther Kessler, about 4-1/2 miles southwest of Richland Center, Richland Township, Fulton County, Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Kessler said that they are the third owners of the farm, and have occupied it for over twenty-two years.

The cemetery is about 500-800 feet south of the barn, in the northwest part of the woods, situated on top of a hill.

We tried to read the stones from north to south, but it proved to be almost impossible to record them in any particular order, as the stones were in such disarray.

Readings made in 1974.

EDDINGER CEMETERY

Located on the old Christopher Eddinger property, near Platz, or Germany Bridge, about seven miles northwest of Rochester, in Richland Township, Fulton County Indiana.

It has been abandoned for many years, and only two burials were known to Mr. William Hassenplug, the owner in 1935, as reported by Manitou Chapter DAR, Genealogical Survey, Fulton Co Ind Cemeteries, 1935. He indicated that these graves were never marked and the Christian names were not known to him. He also said that the graves were on a knoll just west of the river bridge, and were made prior to 1874, at which time he came to Fulton County)

MAHLER CEMETERY

This burying ground is on the Isaac Kalley old farm, about two miles west of Delong, in Aubbeenaubbee Township, Fulton County, Indiana.

It is difficult to see, mostly covered by bushes, vines, ivy and trees which are about shoulder height. The ground is in a field not far from the road.

This cemetery has long been abandoned and the land under cultivation. Most of the markers have been destroyed - only the following remain.

The stones were read from north to south. Information was recorded October 10, 1974.

MOHLER, John, son of E. Gideon & Martha Mohler, died November 25, 1856, age 19y-11m-28d.

[NOTE: Manitou Chapter D.A.R., Genealogical Survey Fulton County Ind Cemeteries, 1935, states that John Mohler died February 26, 1856, age 19y & 14d.

This stone is flat, upright, in good condition, and not difficult to read.]

(5 steps)

MAHLER, Martha J., Our Mother, wife of E. Gideon Mahler, d. April 5, 1875, age 58y-11m-26d.

SUTLEY FAMILY CEMETERY

This is an abandoned burying ground, not located by these compilers.

Manitou Chapter DAR, Genealogical Survey, Fulton Co Ind Cemeteries, 1935, indicates that this cemetery was located on the Frederick Agster farm, about one mile northeast of Leiters Ford, in Aubbeenaubbee Township, Fulton County, Indiana.

That record shows the following three graves, all named by Frederick Agster, who said that no other information was available. The cemetery has long been abandoned, markers destroyed and the plot is under cultivation.

SUTLEY, Christopher
SUTLEY, (----), his wife
SUTLEY, Jacob, their son
(no dates)

Nothing is known concerning the above family. In fact, the only family of the name, here as early as 1850, was that of Henry S. Suttly and wife Mary, who were here by mid 1840's, and who settled in Aubbeenaubbee Township.

Henry S. Suttly (b. 1804 PA) married, second, in 1861 to Elmira Wilson, but nothing further is known of him. His first wife, Mary (b. ca.1805 PA) was missing from the family in the 1860 census.

The only member of this family still here by 1880 was a son-in-law, Christopher Campbell. That was about the year (or a bit earlier) that Frederick Agster and wife Ellen settled in Aubbeenaubbee Township, presumably on the old Suttly farm. It appears likely that in some way Christopher Suttley was related to Henry S. Suttly.

Children of Henry S. Suttly: (1) Sarah Jane, b. ca.1832 PA, m. Oct 18, 1849, John Holland, and fam. gone from Fulton Co., by 1860; (2) Jacob C., b. ca.1833 PA, gone by 1870; (3) Jeremiah, b. ca.1837 PA; (4) Angeline, b. Apr 15, 1838 PA, d. 1858 (Leiters Ford I.O.O.F. cem), first wife of Christopher Campbell whom she m. Oct 30, 1856. Christopher Campbell M. 2nd, Janet Gilchrist, and 3rd Rebecca M. Zuck. -W. C. & J. C. Tombaugh, Fulton Co., Ind. Marriages 1836-1938; (5) Christiana "Mary M. C.", b. ca.1841 PA.

[NOTE: Broken stone - probably the grave of Thomas A. Hust/Hurst, located between Fanny and Lydia Hust/Hurst, known to have been his two wives. By computation, this person b. in 1804. Census records for 1850 and 1860 place birth of Thomas A. Hust about 1804, and he no longer appears in census of 1870 and 1880. Lydia Hust was the householder in 1870 (Union twp), and in 1880, she was a mother "wid." age 69, living with her dau and son-in-law, Judson & Amanda (Hust) Bennett of Union twp.

Thomas A. Hust m. Lydia Bennett, Sep 23, 1858. (W. C. & J. C. Tombaugh, Fulton Co., Ind. Marriages 1836-1983). Since, in reality, Amanda Hust (dau of Thomas A.) was a st-dau to Lydia Bennett Hust; and because Judson Bennett (husband of Amanda) refers to Lydia as his widowed mother, and not his mo-in-law, there seems to be an indication that Lydia Bennett was the mother of Judson Bennett, and probably a widow at the time she m. Thomas A. Hust. The name has been spelled "Hust" & "Hurst".]

Lydia, wife of Thomas A., was still alive in 1880 and therefore the d.d. in the DAR record was incorrect.]

Research reveals only two who might be this same Lewis Young: (1) Lewis Young, ae 17, laborer in household of James & Nancy McQuern of Rochester Twp. in 1850; and (2) Lewis, ae 2, of the household of David & Mary Young of Newcastle Twp in 1850. No Lewis Young found in Fulton County in 1860. David Young was also gone from this county in 1860, but had returned by 1870 and was living in the household of his son, John W. Young, in Rochester Twp.

Whatever the error is, it hardly seems likely that Lewis Young died at 57 years.]

SPENCER, Mary F. S., dau of Wm. L. & N., d. Oct 3, 1853 (difficult to read)

SHAFFER CEMETERY, Union Twp., NORTH SECTION

[NOTE: This family name was very hard to read. It resembles Spencer more than any other name. Genealogical research by this compiler indicates that it very likely was Spencer.

Involved were the families of William & Elizabeth Spencer & William H. & Delila Troutman, both families residents of Union Twp, Fulton Co Ind, in 1850.

William Spencer (1800-1868, Citizens Cem, Rochester Twp, Fulton Co Ind) and his first wife, Mary (1800-1845) may have been the parents of William L. Spencer. William Spencer m. (2nd), Elizabeth Raynes, August 9, 1846 (Fulton Co Ind M.R.). His children included: (1) Jane M., b.ca.1834 Ind; (2) Samantha, b.ca.1847, d. between 1864 & 1870, m.1864 Milton H. Moore; (3) Augustus Haven, 1850-1934, Citizens Cem, Rochester Twp, Fulton Co Ind; and probably, (4) William L. Spencer. No doubt there were other children also.

Census 1850, Fulton Co Ind, Union Twp, indicates that William and Elizabeth Spencer were householders in that area. Jane M. (ae 16) and Samantha (ae 3) were with them. Nancy Spencer (ae 24), and Frances (11 mo) were also with this household, and may have been a dau-in-law and granddaughter of William Spencer.

William L. Spencer m. September 17, 1848, Nancy Smith (Fulton Co Ind M.R.), and one dau was b.ca.1849, Mary F. (Frances) S. (Smith?) Spencer. Wm. L. probably d.ca.1850, and Nancy (Smith) Spencer next m. October 2, 1851, William H. Troutman, whose first wife, Delila, had died May 1851 leaving a son, John L. Troutman (b.ca.1850). Five children were born to Wm. H. and Nancy (Smith) Spencer Troutman by 1860.]

[NOTE: Manitou Chapter DAR, Genealogical Survey, Fulton Co Ind Cemeteries, 1935, gives the same d.d. for William Wilson, but shows ae 59y-8m-16d. This reading seems more plausible than ours, since it puts him more nearly the same age as his wife. His being 20 years older than his wife was not impossible, but was not as likely as being closer to her age. If he d. at 59 years, his birth year would have been ca.1785, almost the same as his wife, Ann.]

TONER, Samuel, d. Apr 20, 1966?, ae 75y-11m ?

[NOTE: Top of this stone missing. This could be the Samuel Toner who was b. in Penn ca. 1790, and who m. Anna Shaffer, (b.ca.1794 N.Jersey), in Northumberland Co, Penn.

Samuel & Anna were in Fulton Co., Ind by 1843, and had settled in Union Twp. by 1850 with their youngest son, Albert D. Toner Eleven children said to have been born to them. The names of only five are known to this compiler at this time: (1) John Henderson Toner, b.1826 Ohio, m.1848 Elizabeth Updegraff (d.1886); m. next Hester A. Graham, 1857 (1828-1905); (2) Edward Toner, b.1828 Ohio (or Shelby Co Ind?), m. Elizabeth S. -----, who d.1857, and he next m.1858, Mary L. Updegraff who died 1860; (3) Andrew J. Toner, b.ca.1829 Ohio/Ind, m.1849, Mary Ann Cavender, and perhaps next to Sarah ----, sometime between 1870 & 1880; (4) William Toner 1831-1844; (5) Albert D., b.1834, never married. (Peattie, History of Fulton Co., Ind, pp. 138-141; Kingman Bros., Historical Atlas, Fulton Co., Ind., p. 59; Fulton Co., Ind, Census; Fulton Co Ind M.R.; Fulton Co Ind Cems.)]

(----) -----

[NOTE: Only a part of this loose marker remains, and only two of the five lines of inscription are readable: "Winona Minn., Oct 19, 1875 . . . The accidental discharge of a pistol . . . his body at Winona Minn, Oct 19, 1875."

See Wendell C. Tombaugh, Fulton County, Ind. Newspaper Excerpts 1875, Vol. 5, which quotes from the Rochester Sentinel, Sat., Oct 30, 1875, obituary of Alonzo Troutman, who d. October 19, 1875, at Winona, Minn., ae 29y-6m-1d, from accidental discharge of a revolver while on honeymoon with his wife, the former Emma Mahon, of Chicago, whom he had married here on Oct. 13, 1875.]

(----) (broken stone)

TROUTMAN, Mary B., wife of J.H., d. ----

[NOTE: Broken at the date line, and all but name of deceased is below ground. This could be the Mary B. Todd who m. Feb 2, 1846, James H. Troutman, who were householders of Union Twp. in 1850. The census for that year indicates that she was b.Virginia ca.1827, and that they had children: Elizabeth, Jr. (b.ca.1848), and William T. (b.ca.1850). Elizabeth Todd, ae 16 (b.Virginia) was living with them.

By 1860, Census records indicate that the wife of James H. Troutman was Margaret (b.Ohio ca.1825). Melissa J. Sutton (ae 14) was with them, indicating perhaps that Margaret was a 2nd wife, and Melissa J. Sutton a dau of Margaret's first marriage. At any rate, Elizabeth & William T. (children of Mary B. Troutman) were still with their father, as well as four children of James H. and Margaret: Rachel, John, Ida and Fletcher, all four under ten years of age.

This family appears to have left Fulton Co prior to 1870. Mary B. (Todd) Troutman, his first wife, d. sometime between 1850-55. (Fulton Co., Ind M.R.; Fulton Co Ind Census.)]
