LEITERS SHOOTING FATAL

William F. Schmidt

A man was shot and killed early Sunday while running from the home of Ryan LAMUNION, 24, 4330 N. Fulton County Road 750 West.

Dead is William F. SCHMIDT, 19, whose last known address was 110-1/2 S. Center St., Bremen.

Few details were being released this morning.

Indiana State Police said Schmidt was one of five men wearing ski masks who broke in to Lamunion's home just south of Leiters Ford. They beat him and ransacked the home. As they fled, police said, Lamunion got his rifle and fired one shot at Schmidt, striking him in the back and killing him. The other four escaped.

Sgt. Bob LAND said the break-in happened about midnight. Lamunion was beaten about the face and head by one man. His live-in girlfriend, Doris FRY, 25, was held in a different room by another man as the other three ransacked the home.

Lamunion was taken to Woodlawn Hospital and treated for apparently minor injuries from the beating mostly bruises and cuts, Land said. He was not jailed.

Land said police have not determined why the men broke into the Lamunion home. "We're treating it as a home invasion at this point," Land said.

"As far as we can determine, there were five suspects total. As to race, four white, one black," he said.

Nobody saw a vehicle, Land said, and any transportation the suspects used was parked away from the home. A county snow plow cleaned the way for police and emergency vehicles as they went to the scene.

Land said police weren't immediately able to tell if anything was stolen during the incident.

State police ask anyone with information about the shooting to call them. - - - -

James O. Wilson

Longtime Fulton County Council member James O. WILSON, 78, Kewanna, died Wednesday at 7:40 a.m. at St. Joseph's Regional Medical Center, Plymouth.

Funeral services are scheduled for 11 a.m. Saturday at St. John Lutheran Church, Rochester. The service will be officiated by the Rev. James W. KREFT. Graveside military services will be performed at the Citizens I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Kewanna, where he will be buried.

Friends may call from 4-8 p.m. Friday and one hour before services at the church.

Wilson, a Republican, was elected to the Fulton County Council in 1986 and served for 12 years.

He defeated Democrat Joseph DAGUE 984-905 in 1986. Wilson ran unopposed in each of the 1990 and 1994 elections earning 1,329 and 1,345 votes respectively.

He decided not to seek re-election to the council in 1998 and was replaced by former Republican commissioner Rich POWELL.

Former Council President Mel MYERS said Wilson was a faithful, conservative voice for the county.

"I thought an awful lot of James O.," Myers said. "He was a very conservative councilman, probably more conservative than me.

"He was really an outstanding person. I don't think he hardly missed any council meetings while I was on the council and he was always on time."

Republican Commissioner Steve HARTZLER also worked with Wilson on the council before 1992.

"He was a very knowledgeable guy," Hartzler said. "He was quiet, but when he said something, you knew it had been very well thought out. He really looked out for the taxpayers of the county. He had a good feel for what people in the county thought."

Said Myers, "He's been a good friend. I've known him since I moved here in 1936. I've never heard anyone say a bad word about him."

A retired member and former trustee of the St. Johns Lutheran Church, Rochester, and a member of the American Legion, Rochester, and National Farmer's Organization.

Wilson was born to James Elmore and Emma Ethel SCHIRM WILSON on July 7, 1921 in Star City.

A 1939 graduate of Kewanna High School, Wilson served in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II. He married Wilma R. DITTMAN at St. John Lutheran on Dec. 19, 1943. She survives.

The couple had four children. They are Mark and wife Nicki WILSON, Rochester; Tim and wife Debbie WILSON, Kewanna; Mary Lou and husband Bill FOERG, Royal Center; and Judy and husband Jack GRAHAM, Lucerne.

Wilson had nine grandchildren: Kimberly SCHRODER, Scott FOERG, Eric FOERG, Nathan GRAHAM, Emily GRAHAM, Kurt GRAHAM, Seth WILSON, Kaylee WILSON and Taylor WILSON. Ethan SCHRODER is a great-grandson.

Wilson was preceded in death by two brothers and one sister.

Judy Burton

Julia Ann "Judy" BURTON, 77, died at 10:05 p.m. Friday at Carmel Care Center. Arrangements are pending at Foster and Good Funeral Home, Rochester.

Monday, November 8, 1999

DEMOCRAT LEADER JUDY BURTON DIES

Julia Ann (Judy) BURTON, 77, long-time Rochester resident well-known in the state for her Democratic party leadership, died at 10:05 p.m. Friday at the Carmel Care Center in Carmel.

Long active in Democratic party affairs, she was vice chairman of the Indiana Democratic Central Committee from 1968 to 1974 and chairperson of the Indiana Women's Federation. For almost 20 years she was Fifth District Democratic vice chairman and also directed the Fulton County campaigns of U.S. Senators Vance HARTKE and Birch BAYH, Governors Roger BRANIGAN and Evan BAYH as well as other Democratic candidates for state office.

Mrs. Burton served nine years as a member of the Indiana State Fair Commission, a position from which she retired last August. She also had owned and operated the Fulton County Beverage Co. in Rochester.

Born March 13, 1922, in Missouri, she was the daughter of Elmer and Fay GORDON of Rochester. A graduate of Rochester High School, she also attended Indiana University.

Her first marriage was to Joseph GILBERT, who was killed during a kamikaze attack on his ship during the Battle of Leyte in World War II. Her second marriage was to Bryce BURTON.

Locally, Mrs. Burton for many years headed the March of Dimes fund drive and was active in Girl Scouts. She was a member of the American Legion Women's Auxiliary. From her home at the headwaters of Lake Manitou, she was a devoted bird watcher and long-time conservationist and wildlife advocate.

Gov. Frank O'BANNON, who had reappointed her to the State Fair Commission, said today "Judy has been a friend for more than 25 years. Her leadership and valued service in her community and our state will be sadly missed. My wife Judy and I - and the entire state - have lost a real friend. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her family and many friends whose lives she tirelessly worked to make better."

Former Indiana Democratic party chairman Gordon St. ANGELO, with whom Mrs. Burton worked closely, said that Mrs. Burton was one of the first women to take a statewide leadership role in the party and credited her with efficiently organizing women's activities and developing others in leadership roles.

"Judy was very easy to work with, very energetic," said St. Angelo. "She was ahead of her time. She brought a lot of ingenuity to the position. In those days it was difficult for a woman to have any position of authority and she always had an air of authority about her. She always made arrangements that her voice would be heard."

Mrs. Burton was an early booster of former Sen. Birch Bayh and of his son, Evan, Indiana governor and now Indiana's junior senator.

When Birch Bayh was running for the Democratic presidential nomination, she campaigned for him in Iowa and New Hampshire.

Said Sen. Evan Bayh today, "Judy Burton is someone I have known since I was a young boy. She was a generous, caring person, involved in her community and dedicated to making it a better place. Judy is someone we will miss a great deal.”

Robert PETERSON, Rochester attorney, chairman of Fifth District and Fulton County Democratic Central Committees, a former state senator and candidate for lieutenant governor, said “Judy always was very kind and helpful to me in my campaigns.” He added: “She gave a presence of Fulton County and Rochester to the state Democratic party and to the state of Indiana. A vigorous and determined political person, she was adept at working out different points of view among individuals and was an excellent fundraiser.”

Mrs. Burton is survived by six daughters, Ann (Steve) FURNIVALL, Rochester; Linda (Mike) HATCH, Redington Shores, Fla.; Nanci (Larry) CUMMINGS, Crawfordsville; Kathy BURTON, Sonoma, Cal.; Christine “Susie” (Jeff) ARNOLD, Indianapolis, and Rebecca BURTON, Carmel; 14 grandchildren, Jon WOOTEN, Julia BRADLEY, Heidi [HATCH] and Michael HATCH, Gretchen BRICKER, Christine [CUMMINGS], Chase [CUMMINGS] and Elizabeth CUMMINGS, Vanessa [NISSON] and Victor NISSON, Jennifer [ARNOLD] and Christopher ARNOLD, Chloe [BURTON] and Taylor BURTON, and three great-grandchildren, Matthew [WOOTEN] and Joshua WOOTEN and Kemper Lynn BRICKER.

Services will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the Foster & Good Funeral Home with Joseph HOGSETT, former Indiana Secretary of State officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home from 4-8 p.m. today and for two hours before the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Judy Burton Wetlands Fund, care of First Federal Savings Bank, Rochester.
