SECTION 1

The Rochester Mausoleum
I.O.O.F. Cemetery

The Rochester Mausoleum Company was organized and incorporated on April 8, 1911, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining community mausoleums at and in the vicinity of the City of Rochester, Indiana.

For this purpose, Lots No. 23 and 24 in Joseph A. Myers' Subdivision of Out Lot 25 in Shryock & Bozarth's Addition to the town of Rochester, were purchased.

The Rochester Mausoleum was constructed and crypts sold, and bodies accepted for burial therein.

On October 13, 1970, a case was filed in the Fulton Circuit Court, alleging that for more than ten years last past, there had been no elected, qualified and acting officers or directors of the company. Also that for more than 20 years last past, the First National Bank of Rochester, Rochester, Indiana, had acted as trustee of the funds of said company. Also, that the said mausoleum was in a state of extreme disrepair, and constituted a public nuisance and should be removed, requiring the reinterment of all bodies presently interred therein.

In April, 1971, 124 bodies were removed from the Rochester Mausoleum, and reinterred in a mass burial site, along the east side of the I.O.O.F. Cemetery. Only three of these have dates.

We understand that the Rochester Mausoleum record book is lost.

RRYANT, John N.

BRYANT, Hannah E.

[NOTE: Several of the name of John Bryant, and of about the same age, were residents of Henry and Newcastle Twp, Fulton County Ind. All, or nearly all, seem to have originated in Kosciusko Co Ind.

This John N. Bryant was b.ca.1845 Ind, and was a son of Peter (1820-1879 Nichols cem, Kosc. Co Ind) and Lucy (1826-1879 Nichols cem, beside Peter, and called "wife of Wm. H. H. Hamlett"). Lucy, mother of John N. Bryant & widow of Peter Bryant, next m., July 9, 1870, William H. H. Hamlett (b.ca.1816 Ind, d. ---, & whose household in 1870 census included children of another Wm. H. H. & Lucy Hamlett also included, in 1870, her 3 children by her first husband, Peter Bryant.

Neither the date nor the place of the death of Wm. H. H. Hamlett (b.1816) is known to this writer. However, since his wife, Lucy (----) Bryant Hamlett, d.1879, he may have moved elsewhere or died before 1880. Census of 1880, Newc. Twp, indicate that two of the children who had been with Wm. H. H. & Lucy Hamlett in 1870 (John Hamlett & William Hamlett) were back in the household of their father, Wm. H. H. Hamlett (b.1836) and his new wife, Martha Ann (Bybee) Montgomery, along with her children by former marriage (Nancy Montgomery, Nathan Montgomery, Washington Montgomery, all identified as step-children). By 1880, two of the Bryant children were married, and the third living in the household of a cousin, the mother having died by then.

Four children were born to Peter & Lucy (----) Bryant:

NELSON, Delilah E.

[NOTE: Fulton Co Ind M.R. show that Samuel Nelson m. Delilah Stahl, April 10, 1886. Nothing was found to further identify Samuel I. Nelson. However, Delilah E., his wife, was probably the dau of Levi & Mary (Drudge) Stahl, and born ca.1869, a sister to Charles N. Stahl.

Fulton Co Ind School Enumeration, 1896, 1898 & 1899, reveal that Samuel and Delilah Nelson were residents of Newcastle Twp with two children in school: Chloe Nelson, b. BELL, Mahlon

BELL, Martha J.

[NOTE: Obit for Mahlon Bell, Rochester News Sentinel, Mon., Oct. 13, 1941, tells that he died age 92, at th home of his dau, Mrs. Guy Alspach, on "Sunday", res of Cass Co Ind, and last 25 years, of Fulton Co Ind.

He was born May 6, 1849 in Jackson Twp, Cass Co Ind, a son of James and Elizabeth (Rose) Bell. Before his retirement and subsequent move to Rochester, he was in the lumber business at Lincoln Ind, and Memphis Tenn. He was assessor for Rochester Twp for the past 14 years. Mahlon Bell m. in Jackson (twp?) June 26, 1870, Martha J. Frush. Surviving him: (dau) Mrs. Daisy Alspach of Rochester; grandchildren Harold Davisson of Rochester, Mrs. George D. Duncan of Alton Illinois; (gr-grandchild) Miss Zanna Davisson of Rochester; (bro) Perry Bell of Ladysmith, Wisconsin. Interment in Rochester Mausoleum.

Obit for Mrs. Mahlon Bell, Rochester Sentinel, Sat., Jan 14, 1911, tells that she died "Friday" at the home of her dau, Mrs. A. C. Davisson of Rochester. She was born 1851, at Lincoln, Cass Co Ind, and resided there until her marriage to Mahlon Bell. They lived in Logansport until "last September" at which time they moved to Rochester. Surviving her; the husband and their two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Davisson and Mrs. Guy Alspach, both of Rochester.

Nellie Bell, dau of Mahlon & Martha J. Bell, was b.1872 in Lincoln, Cass Co Ind, and m. a. Clinton Davisson (1871-1955). She was a member of Manitou Chapter D.A.R. The Davisson home was at 1305 South Main street before they moved, about 4 years before her death, to a farm three miles south of Athens. Survivors: the husband; the father; (sis) Mrs. Guy Alspach; (son) Harrold Davisson, and (granddau) Zanna Davisson, all of Rochester. (see Rochester News-Sentinel, Thurs. & Fri., May 8 & 9, 1941, obit, "Mrs. A. C. Davisson").

Daisy Bell, dau of Mahlon & Martha J. Bell, was b. March 2, 1878, at Lincoln, Cass Co Ind, and died "today" at the Calloway Hospital, Fulton Missouri. She m. Guy Alspach, and they lived at 1009 Main street, Rochester, for many years. Guy Alspach operated what was known as The Hub Shoe Store. They moved to Fulton Missouri 18 months before her death, to be near their dau. Guy Alspach died September 28, 1950. Daisy Bell Alspach was a member of the Manitou Chapter D.A.R. Survivors: (dau) Mrs. Mary Jane Duncan of Fulton Missouri. Mrs. Garry (Zanna Davisson) Daniels, of Rochester, is a great-niece. (see Rochester News-Sentinel, Mon., Apr. 7, 1952, obit, "Mrs. Daisy Alspach").]

McINTYRE, Daniel H.

[NOTE: This appears to be the Daniel H. McIntire (b. January 3, 1832, d. May 18, 1899, with grave marker in Nichols cem, Kosciusko Co Ind). Another marker next to that of Daniel H. (Nichols cem), with no inscription, probably meant for Rosanna, wife of Daniel H. My thought is that he was first bur in Nichols cem, and later removed to the Rochester Mausoleum. An obit for Daniel H. McIntyre, Rochester Sentinel, Friday, May 19, 1899, calls him "an aged farmer and an early settler," who died "yesterday" at his home seven miles east of Rochester. Numerous Henry Twp, Fulton Co Ind citizens were buried in Nichols cem. Daniel H. was a son of Daniel M. & Mary McIntire early settlers of Henry Twp.

Daniel H. McIntire m. February 15, 1853, Rosana Bryant (Fulton Co Ind M.R.). They were householders of Henry Twp in Census 1860 thru 1880 with a family. Nancy Bryant, mother of Rosana (Bryant) McIntire, was living with this family in 1870 & 1880.

Children of Daniel H. & Rosana McIntire:

(1) Alford, b.1854, d. September 18, 1874, age 20yr (see Fulton Co Ind Cem, Henry Twp, Daniel McIntire Farm cem); (2) Nancy J., b.1856, d. February 12, 1865 (ibid); (3) Daniel F., b.1858, d.1932, m. August 22, 1878, Ella "Sarah Ellen" Barnes (1860-1938) (Fulton Co Ind Cem, Henry Twp, Hoover cem); (4) John B., b.1861, d. February 26, 1865 (Fulton Co Ind Cem, Henry Twp, Daniel McIntire Farm cem); (5) William, b.ca.1867.

Daniel McIntire, Sr., father of Daniel H., was b.ca.1802 in Virginia. His death date is unknown at this time. He m. Mary, b.ca.1808 Ohio. An obit published in the Rochester Sentinel, Sat., Aug. 16, 1884, could be hers. It reveals that "Grandma McIntire" died at the old homestead farm, 6 miles east of Rochester, August 9, age 76y-8m-1d. Also, that she was buried in the family graveyard on the farm "last Sunday". Mary McIntire, wife of Dan, Sr., was in the 1880 census (Henry Twp) with her husband and a granddaughter, Emeline (ae 17). Mary's age was given as 72 years. Doubtless she was buried in what is called the Old McIntire cemetery of Henry twp. No grave-marker was found for her, however.(see Fulton Co Ind Cem, Henry Twp, Daniel McIntire Farm cem).

Nancy Bryant, mother of Rosana (Bryant) McIntire, was probably widowed before 1850. Census of that year reveals that she was a householder of Henry Twp, age 57 and born in Ky. The only other member of this household was Rosanna, age 22, who later m. Daniel H. McIntire. Nancy Bryant was not found in the Fulton County census of 1860, but by 1870 she was again in Fulton Co, living with her dau, Rosana, and son-in-law Daniel H. McIntire of Henry Twp. She was still with the McIntire household in 1880, and was identified as his widowed mo-in-law age 88 (she and her parents natives of Ky). Pension list indicates that Nancy Bryant was receiving 8.00 per month pension as a widow, Rochester Sentinel, Sat., Nov. 10, 1883.

The obit for "Mrs. Nancy Bryant" published in the Rochester Sentinel, Sat., Oct. 6, 1883, tells that she died at the residence of her dau, Mrs. Daniel McIntire in Henry Twp, "Wednesday of this week," age 92y-4m-25d. She was the mother of Daniel Bryant, Hugh Bryant, John Bryant and Wm. Bryant (the latter a county commissioner). She was buried in the Nichols cem in Kosciusko Co on Thursday. Kosciusko Co Ind Cem, Nichols Cem, grave marker: Nancy Bryant, wife of John Bryant, died October 3, 1883 age 91y-5m-11d. (Note difference between grave marker and obit age at time of death).]

(ESSICK), Ellen L., Nov 13, 1842 - June 22, 1906 "Lineal descendant of Hannah

Duston"

[NOTE: Although this soldier was not named, it most surely would be Michael L. Essick, lawyer of the city of Rochester Ind in 1870 & 1880 (see Census).

Fulton Co Ind D.R. show Martin Luther Essick died September 19, 1913, but this should be Michael L. Essick. He was b.ca.1835, a son of Samuel Essick. The will of Michael L. Essick, date June 28, 1906, proved September 27, 1913, leaves real estate in Fulton Co Ind to his son, Vivian L. Essick; and real estate in Miami Co Ind to his son, Samuel L. Essick "being the same lands willed to me by my father Samuel Essick, deceased." He also mentions his grandchildren, Zella and Zoe Essick. In a codicil, dated September 20, 1909, he mentions grandchildren: Zella, Zoe and Samuel Luther Trickle Essick. (Fulton Co Ind W.B. "E", p. 172).

Ellen L. Rowley, dau of Mrs. Rachel Rowley, was b. at Bryan Ohio, a few weeks after her father died. While still an infant, she and her mother moved to Angola Ind, and lived with her mother's bro, James Rowley, who cared for them until the spring of 1858, when he married and they all moved to Manhattan Kansas. Ellen L. married there, October 31, 1858, Michael L. Essick, and two sons were born to them there, dying while young. Also while there Michael L. Essick served in the Civil War. This family removed to Rochester 1865.

Children of Michael Luther & Ellen L. (Rowley) Essick: (1) Vivian L., 1865, m.1887 Sarah E. Blackburn; (2) Grizella (dau), b. October 1869; (3) Samuel L., b.ca.1873 (Fulton Co Ind Census; Evening Sentinel, Fri., June 29, 1906 "Mrs. M. L. Essick; Fulton Co Ind W.B. "D", p. 311; Fulton Co Ind M.R..)]
